ALUMNI ASSOCIATION, INC.

ALUMNI NEWSLETTER

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

The North Carolina Central University School of Law Alumni Association's 1991-1992 year of operation has already been a banner year! Membership dues payments and Annual Fund donations have been received by the Alumni Association at a faster pace than in any other previous year. This landmark effort has been highlighted by the Alumni Association's attainment of its first Silver Eagle donor, Eugene W. Ellison '83 of Asheville, by virtue of his generous contribution to the Annual Fund.

The Alumni Association's quarterly newsletter publication has begun this year, which increases the quantity and quality of communication between the Alumni Association and the alumni. The Alumni Association has already fulfilled its commitment to fund five research assistantships totalling $2,500.00 in order to foster legal research and provide NCCU law students with financial aid opportunities. The Alumni Association joined with the Student Bar Association of NCCU School of Law to co-sponsor homecoming activities for returning alumni, which included a reception and a presentation by distinguished alumnus Willie Gary. Outside of the law school, the Alumni Association joined the ranks of fellow North Carolina law school alumni associations in sponsoring a reception for its own law school alumni at the North Carolina Bar Association's annual meeting in June, and likewise co-sponsored a reception honoring new Bar admittees with the North Carolina Association of Black Lawyers at the organization's October meeting. It has been a busy and productive year thus far.

Supportive alumni are both thanked and congratulated for the accomplishments already made by the Alumni Association. Your continued financial and active participation is vital, however, in order to allow the Alumni Association to remain on the pathway of service to NCCU School of Law and its alumni. Please support the Alumni Association's efforts in its upcoming activities and events.

Happy Holidays!

Alumni Association President
Michael Morgan '76

examination and is living in San Antonio.

Georgia Lewis '89 is a member of the Mecklenburg County Bar Association's Legal Services for the Elderly Program. Ms. Lewis and other members of the program recently authored a number of articles for a newspaper called Senior Directions, which targets mature adults in the Charlotte-Mecklenburg area. The articles covered such topics as living wills, guardianships, domestic law, and social security issues.

Tim Smith '91 is now serving as an Assistant Public Defender in Robeson County, NC. Tim is working with Public Defender Angus Thompson '77.

Michael C. Warren '91 has opened a practice at 105 South Mangum Street, Suite 100 in Durham, NC. Michael's phone number is (919) 688-0077.

CLE PROGRAM PLANNED FOR LAW WEEK

The Law School will sponsor a CLE program entitled "Choice of Business Entities" on Friday afternoon, March 27th, 1991 from 1:00 until 4:00 p.m. at the law school. The program will carry three hours of CLE credit approved by the North Carolina State Bar. Professors Walter E. Nunnallee and Thomas Earnhardt will discuss how to advise your business clients on the form of business which they should adopt.

For more information about the CLE program, contact Patti Solari or Lisa Crutchfield at (919) 560-6333. Registration information will be sent to you next month.

ALUMNI DIRECTORIES AVAILABLE

If you have not received a 1990 NCCU School of Law Alumni Association Directory, there are few copies left. To receive a copy of the Directory, send a check for $10.00 payable to NCCU School of Law Alumni Association to Patti Solari, NCCU School of Law, 1512 S. Alston Avenue, Durham, NC 27707.

IN MEMORIAM

David Z. Lloyd of the class of 1982 passed away in August, 1991 following a short illness. David was a partner in the New York law firm of Horton & Lloyd. Beverly Poppell, David's friend and legal assistant, wrote to the Alumni Association, David's practice was extraordinarily successful in New York, proving that an ethical and soft-spoken Southerner can "make it 'big'" in the "Big Apple." As his legal assistant for four years, I saw firsthand how David put into practice the law he learned at NCCU. His clients -- to a person -- were delighted with his representation of their interests.... You can be proud of the way David Lloyd represented your School of Law. He truly was a "people's lawyer," and his friends and clients in New York sorely miss him.

EMPLOYMENT INFORMATION

If you are planning to hire a law clerk or an associate, please let the Law School know by writing Lisa Crutchfield, Director of Placement and Recruitment, NCCU School of Law, 1512 S. Alston Avenue, Durham, NC 27707.
