To Law School Alumni and Friends:

We are pleased that you have returned to celebrate Law Day with the faculty, staff and students of the Law School. We look forward to renewing friendships, exchanging ideas and talking about "the good old days."

The Annual Law Day Celebration is an important tradition of this Law School. As we celebrate the present, let us also commemorate those who have made the present a reality. As we look towards the future, let us rededicate ourselves to the realization of equality and justice for all.

Welcome to Law Day!

Very truly,

T. M. Ringer, Jr.

Greetings Alumni and Friends:

On behalf of the entire student body at North Carolina Central University School of Law, I welcome you to our Annual Law Day Celebration.

Law Day is a tradition at our Law School and is a way of renewing old friendships and making new ones. More importantly, law day allows our alumni and friends the opportunity to extend their support and to become involved in the future and success of North Carolina Central University School of Law.

Once again, we the student body extend a special and warm welcome to each of you!

Sincerely,

Brenda Baldwin
President,

LAW DAY COMMITTEE

Dear Students, Alumni and Friends:

The purpose of Law Day is to call to the attention of every American citizen both the principles and practice of American Law and Justice. Here at N.C.C.U., Law Day is an opportunity for students, faculty, staff, friends, supporters, and alumni to come together to promote the school's continuing existence and prosperity. It is a time to celebrate the school's achievements both in academic and extracurricular activities. On behalf of the entire committee, I welcome you to Law Day 1986 and hope that you continue building our "Foundations of Freedom."

Sincerely Yours,

Karmen Johnson
Law Day Chairperson

Remarks from the Law Day Committee

Faculty Advisor

To Law School Alumni and Friends:

I am really excited about the 1986 Law Day Celebration and commend you for being a part of it. Your participation allows the Law School community a golden opportunity to renew ties and to interact with positive role models. Without a doubt you have opened doors that present day and future law students can use to spread more positive images of the N.C.C.U. School of Law. Hopefully you will continue to come back.

The Law School needs your continuing support and input if we are to successfully enhance the quality of our program. Let us use this Law Day Celebration to point toward a brighter future for ourselves and the Law School.
