LAW WEEK 1987
North Carolina Central University
School of Law
March 19-21, 1987

On behalf of the North Carolina Central University School of Law, I welcome your participation in our 1987 Law Day activities. This is my first experience with the unique Law Day Celebration at North Carolina Central University Law School. In reality, Law Day is homecoming for us since many of our alumni return to participate in our Law Day activities.

This is an exciting event, and I am anxious to meet you and celebrate your successes. While you are here, I also want to invite you to join and participate in the activities of our rejuvenated alumni association.

On behalf of the entire Law School Family, I thank you for returning to share in this most significant celebration.

Sincerely,

Louis Westerfield

To Law School Alumni & Friends:

It is my pleasure to welcome you to our 1987 Law Day Celebration. As we recognize the Bicentennial birthday of our Constitution we should re-dedicate ourselves to assuring that basic rights are made available to all people. Our Law School plays an important part in providing attorneys who give of themselves to both the legal community and the community at large. You are a part of this great tradition, spreading positive images of NCCU School of Law through North Carolina and beyond.

Your continuing support is appreciated and needed as we strive together towards a future of equality and justice for all.

Sincerely,

Cheryl E. Amana
Faculty Advisor
