DEAN WRIGHT TO RETURN TO THE CLASSROOM

Dean Mary Wright will resign from her position as Dean of the Law School at the end of this academic year and will return to her position as a full time classroom professor.

Law Alumni Association Vice President/President Grady Jessup, will serve on the Dean Search committee. Grady is serving as a Visiting Assistant Professor this year at the School, where he teaches Appellate Advocacy and Housing and Community Development courses

Please direct your concerns over and comments about the selection of the new Dean to Grady at the Law School, (919)560-6333.

Homecoming Reception

The Alumni Association will hold a reception after the homecoming game. We look forward to seeing you there. All Alumni who still have not paid their dues will be able to do so at this time.

COMMITTEES

Anyone interested in serving on a committee for the Alumni Association, please contact Don Murphy at 919-379-9011.

ASSOCIATION CONTRIBUTES TO VISIT BY CON LAW SCHOLAR

The Alumni Association has contributed $1500.00 to the Law School to help defray the cost for a visit by Professor Arthur Kinoy of Rutgers University. Professor Kinoy is a pioneer civil rights attorney and Director of the Center for Constitutional Rights. He will visit the Law School the week of November 8 and will participate in a number of events.

For more information, contact Patti Solari at (919) 560-5249.

SHADOW PROGRAM INITIATED

The Student Bar Association has asked alumni to initiate a "shadow" program. Alumni will be paired with students who will follow them as they carry-on their daily tasks. This opportunity to observe working attorneys will provide an invaluable insight for our students. Students will be unpaid and unobtrusive, and will participate on their breaks and holidays as your schedule permits. To volunteer, call The Student Bar Association at (919)560-6382.
