

Critical Thinking:

Embarking Upon Our 50th Year: The Struggle Continues

LAW WEEK 1988

North Carolina Central University
School of Law

March 17–19, 1988

On behalf of the entire North Carolina Central University School of Law Family, I welcome your participation in our 1988 Law Day Celebration. After having thoroughly enjoyed my first experience with the unique Law Day Celebration at North Carolina Central University School of Law, I eagerly await my second. We at the Law School are preparing for your homecoming, and urge you to participate in all our Law Day activities.

While at the Law School, I hope you will stop by my office and discuss the many exciting programs that we have initiated. I am also eager to hear about your personal and professional accomplishments. I especially encourage you to join and participate in the activities of our rejuvenated alumni association.

On behalf of the entire Law School Family, I thank you for returning to share in this most significant celebration.

Sincerely,

Louis Westerfield

It is my pleasure to welcome you to Law Day, NCCU style. As we come together to celebrate let us dedicate ourselves to our theme "Critical Thinking: Embarking Upon Our Fiftieth Year — The Struggle Continues." When we look at our past we can be very proud of all we've accomplished and even prouder of all we will continue to accomplish. We have so much going for us as we embark upon our fiftieth year including a dedicated and inspiring Dean, committed faculty and students and a new and strong Alumni Association. Working and supporting each other we can be sure that the struggle will go on as we continue to train attorneys, judges and legislators who are committed to our struggle and who make us proud of the job being done here at North Carolina Central University School of Law. It will require the concerted effort of each of us. We welcome and need your ongoing support. Enjoy Law Day and remember The Struggle Continues — be a part of it.

Sincerely,

Cheryl Amana
