POYNER & SPRUILL: First-year students interested in being considered for a summer clerkship position should sign up in the Placement Office by Tues., February 12, 1991.

NORTH CAROLINA STATE BAR: This office will hire one summer 1991 intern to work in its Grievance Department. The intern should be a rising second or third year student and will be required to assist the four staff attorneys in reviewing and processing grievances filed by the public against attorneys. It is important, but not essential, that the applicant have completed a course in professional responsibility or legal ethics. If interested, please submit your resume and a writing sample to: Attorney A. Root Edmonson; North Carolina State Bar; P.O. Box 25908; Raleigh, N.C. 27611. Information must be received in the office of the North Carolina State Bar by February 28, 1991.

ARMY JAGC: First, second and third-year students who wish to schedule an on campus interview should sign up by Thursday, February 7, 1991. Interviews will be conducted by Captain Allison Polchek on Monday, February 11, 1991. Twenty-five summer intern slots are available for first-year students and active duty slots are available for second and third year students.

MINORITY SUMMER LAW CLERKSHIP PROGRAM: This clerkship opportunity is sponsored by the North Carolina Bar Association's Minorities in the Profession Committee and places first year minority students in summer clerkship positions with majority firms in North Carolina. If you are interested in learning more about this program or wish to pick up an application, please stop by the Placement Office. The deadline for submission of complete applications is Friday, February 22, 1991.

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION: All students interested in employment opportunities with this agency should attend one of two information sessions to be held on February 26, 1991. The sessions will be conducted at 12:00 noon and 3:00 pm in Classroom 200. The starting salary for attorneys employed by this agency is $36,500.

DEPARTMENT OF THE AIR FORCE: The Air Force JAGC will be selecting approximately twenty attorneys as judge advocates between now and April 1991. They are also accepting applications for positions available in 1991 and 1992. For more information or to obtain an application, you may call 1-800-524-8723.

NORTH CAROLINA BAR ASSOCIATION: This Association will hire a first or second year law student as a Legislative Clerk for the summer months May through July or August. Responsibilities will include analyzing legislation and policy, composing a newsletter to communicate with attorneys regarding legislative events, and attending Senate/House committee hearings. To apply, please submit your resume and cover letter to: B. Davis Horne, Director; Governmental Affairs; North Carolina Bar Association; P. O. Box 12806; Raleigh, N.C. 27605. The application deadline is March 8, 1991.

NATIONAL VETERANS LEGAL SERVICES PROJECT, INC.: This nonprofit public interest law firm invites applications for fellowships in the field of veterans law. There are two positions available: one for a one-year fellowship beginning on or after September 1, 1991 and one for a one-year fellowship beginning on or after November 1, 1991. The graduate fellow is responsible for presenting appeals to the Court of Veterans Appeals under the supervision of an experienced staff attorney. The salary for the fellowship is $27,500. Health benefits are provided. Applications should consist of a current resume, the names and phone numbers of three references, and at least one legal writing sample which is representative of your writing. With regard to the writing sample, please indicate if you were assisted by someone else, and if so, please describe to what extent the writing is your own. Applications should be sent to: National Veterans Legal Services Project; Attn: Howard Jeannette; 2001 S Street, NW; Suite 610; Washington, D.C. 20009.

MULTISTATE PRACTICE EXAMS: Until Tuesday, February 12, 1991, Dean Mills will have available to third year students copies of multistate tests that were previously used in a bar review course. Thereafter, tests will be made available to second year students, and finally first year students if any copies are left. As you should recognize, some of the questions are probably dated, especially in areas like constitutional law and criminal procedure. Nonetheless, the tests should be useful for practice.
