

North Carolina Central University School of Law
History and Scholarship Digital Archives

NCCU Law School Weekly

Bulletins and Announcements

2-28-1991

The Weekly February 28, 1991

North Carolina Central School of Law

Follow this and additional works at: <https://archives.law.nccu.edu/weekly>

Part of the Legal Education Commons

Recommended Citation

North Carolina Central School of Law, "The Weekly February 28, 1991" (1991). NCCU Law School Weekly. 20.
<https://archives.law.nccu.edu/weekly/20>

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by the Bulletins and Announcements at History and Scholarship Digital Archives. It has been accepted for inclusion in NCCU Law School Weekly by an authorized administrator of History and Scholarship Digital Archives. For more information, please contact jbecker@nccu.edu.

N C C U
L A W S C H O O L W E E K L Y

February 28, 1991

Make sure they have official notice!
Put it in the Weekly

MOOT COURT BOARD: Registration for the Fullwood Competition has been extended to 1:00 P.M. Friday, March 1, 1991. All Junior Board members are reminded that to receive full membership they must participate in a competition, preferably the Fullwood competition. Other students who are interested in joining the Moot Court Board can use the Fullwood competition to satisfy candidacy requirements for membership. Scores received for the argument in the first round of competition will be added to the brief scores and Appellate Ad grades to determine if participants satisfy candidacy requirements. See Gail Davis, Regina Mitchell, or Dean Joyner if you have questions.

STUDENT BAR ASSOCIATION: The SBA Elections Committee will hold elections for the 1991-92 school year on March 21, 1991. The following officers will be elected: SBA President, Vice President, Recording Secretary, Correspondence Secretary, Treasurer, SBA Class Representatives (2 Reps. from 2L and 3L Class Day Program, and 2 Reps. from the Evening Program) and class officers. All rules governing the elections are posted on the SBA Bulletin Board downstairs in the Law School student lounge. If you have any questions regarding the elections, please contact the following members of the SBA Elections Committee: Tracey Gaston, Brian Welch, or Selece Jones.

PHI DELTA PHI: The Phi Delta Phi meeting on Monday, March 11th, has been rescheduled for Friday, March 15th at 2:00 p.m. in Room 100.

Attention All Members: Please make sure that local and national dues are paid before this meeting.

WOMEN'S CAUCUS: The Women's Caucus will have a "Sisterhood Dinner" March 23, 1991 at 6 p.m. in NCCU Student Union, Room 146. The Dinner will be held to honor the achievements of women both in the legal community and the community at large. Tickets will be available beginning Monday, March 11, 1991. See Selece Jones, Ida Baker, or Sharyl Mason for details.
Ticket Prices: $5.00 - Students; $6.50 - Alumni; and $7.00 - Faculty.

LAW JOURNAL: The Board of Editors is pleased to announce the appointment of Mr. John Ebersole and Ms. Carol Schmid to the Board. Ms. Schmid is a Note/Comments Editor and Mr. Ebersole is a Business Co-Editor along with Mr. Christopher Harper, formerly Note/Comments Editor.

There will be a meeting of the Board of Editors today Thursday, February 28, 1991 at 6:00 p.m. in the Journal office.

MINORITY SUMMER LAW CLERKSHIP PROGRAM: Students who applied for participation in this program will be notified as to whether or not they have been selected to participate on March 13, 1991.

IOLTA: Students who filed an application for will be notified as to whether or not they have been selected to receive a fellowship on March 28, 1991.

NORTH CAROLINA BAR ASSOCIATION: This Association will hire a first or second year law student as a Legislative Clerk for the summer months May through July or August. Responsibilities will include analyzing legislation and policy, composing a newsletter to communicate with attorneys regarding legislative events, and attending Senate/House committee hearings. To apply, please submit your resume and cover letter to: B. Davis Horne, Director; Governmental Affairs; North Carolina Bar Association; P. O. Box 12806; Raleigh, N.C. 27605. The application deadline is March 8, 1991.

N.C. ENVIRONMENTAL DEFENSE FUND: This non-profit research and advocacy organization is seeking summer interns to work on issues relating to recycling and solid waste management, coastal resources and water quality, and air pollution control. Interns will help develop environmentally and economically sound policy initiatives and will work on projects designed to produce useful products (e.g., technical reports or legislative proposals) by the end of the summer. The positions will be located in NCEDF's Raleigh office and salaries will run between $250 and $350 per week, depending on experience. Outside financial support (e.g., student-funded fellowships) is a definite plus. Send resumes to: Steven J. Levitas; North Carolina Environmental Defense Fund; 128 East Hargett Street, Suite 202; Raleigh, N.C. 27601.

ABA TASK FORCE ON OPPORTUNITIES FOR MINORITIES IN THE PROFESSION: The Placement Office has received an audiotape entitled "Judicial Clerkships for Minority Students" which features a distinguished panel of speakers who informally describe the educational and career benefits of serving as a judicial clerk or judicial intern and explain how to apply for a clerkship or externship. This tape is now available to students who would like to listen to it.

BILL THORP & ASSOCIATES: All second year students interested in being considered for a summer clerkship position with this firm should sign up in the Placement Office by Monday, March 11, 1991. The firm handles civil matters primarily in the areas of medical negligence, auto accidents, and condemnations. Students who apply should have a strong background in research and writing. When you sign up, be sure that you have a current resume on file and submit a cover letter.

FORD, MARRIN, ESPOSITO & WITMEYER: This firm is currently accepting resumes from members of the class of 1991 for associate positions. They are looking for candidates with good academic credentials and law journal experience. The firm is primarily engaged in a Wall Street litigation and corporate practice. A recent copy of their firm resume is on file in the Placement Office. Interested students should submit their resume to: Attorney Charles A. Booth; Ford, Marrin, Esposito & Whitmeyer; 120 Wall Street; New York, N.Y. 10005.

OREGON SUPREME COURT AND COURT OF APPEALS: Applications are currently being accepted to one or both courts or to specific judges for 1992-93 clerkship positions. To be eligible, a student must have a Juris Doctor degree from an ABA accredited law school. Applications must include a permanent mailing address and a telephone number where you may be reached through September 1991, a resume, including academic highlights, honors, and extracurricular activities in college and law school, a law school transcript, complete up to the time of your application, grade point averages and class rank for college and law school, LSAT score, at least three letters of recommendation, final second-year grades should be submitted as soon as they are available, a writing sample, an indication of whether you intend to take the Oregon Bar examination, and a brief response to this question: Why are you interested in working as a law clerk for the Oregon Supreme Court and the Court of Appeals? Only one copy of this required information needs to be submitted. Applications will be accepted through May 10, 1991. Letters, applications, or telephone inquiries should be directed only to: Barbara Morrison; Judicial Department; Personnel Division; Supreme Court Building; 1163 State Street, Salem, Oregon 97310; (503) 378-5198.

HARVARD LAW SCHOOL: The Placement Office has received a brochure on Graduate Studies at the law school which is available to all students who may be interested.