LAW LIBRARY SUGGESTION BOX

SUGGESTION: Perhaps we should obtain Professor Mark Morris' book on North Carolina Tort Law.

RESPONSE: North Carolina Law of Torts by Charles E. Daye and Mark Morris has been ordered and should be available soon.

SUGGESTION: Put ceilings on the "new" study rooms located where the circulation desk used to be.

RESPONSE: Ceilings in the "new" study room area would not allow you to take advantage of the skylight architecture.

SUGGESTION: I'd like to know whose idea it was to use the only room with windows available for media room. Can't you find someplace else for that equipment so we can have somewhere to study?

RESPONSE: NO. The media equipment has to be kept in a secure and easily accessible area. There are two study rooms on the third floor of the library and upon completion of construction, there will be two study rooms on the second floor for study. Additionally, there are ample study carrels and tables available for students to study on both floors.

SUGGESTION: Is it possible to get more desks in the first floor area. The few we have are always full.

RESPONSE: When construction is complete and the new shelving is installed, additional table space will be available on the first floor area.
