ADMINISTRATIVE NEWS

REMINDER TO ALL LAW STUDENTS:
Please be sure to complete the law school clearance phase of registration by showing Mrs. Brown either your receipt stamped "Paid" or your validated ID card by 5:00 p.m. Friday, January 17th.

FACULTY NOTES

RESCHEDULING OF CLASSES:
This is a follow-up regarding my announcement that there were two dates when I was unable to meet the class: Wednesday, January 15, 1992 and Wednesday, February 12, 1992.

Please note that I have subsequently been able to resolve the first date conflict. Accordingly, be advised that Professional Responsibility will meet at its regularly scheduled time, 4:00 p.m., Wednesday, January 15th.

As previously announced, the class meeting scheduled for February 12th will be rescheduled. Professor Burnele V. Powell

LIBRARY NEWS

LAW LIBRARY SUGGESTION BOX - SUGGESTION: Could "Quiet Please" signs be placed at the front desk?

RESPONSE: YES

Students interested in working in the Library should see Professor Jefferies immediately.

STUDENT ORGANIZATIONS NEWS

STUDENT ORGANIZATION LEADERS:
The Student Bar Association requests your participation in the newly appointed "Student Leadership Summit." This group was appointed as an ad-hoc committee by the SBA Executive Board last semester. The purpose of the summit is to provide an opportunity for student organization leaders to meet on a regular basis to discuss issues of concern. All law students are very busy and there is a tendency to be unaware of activities happening at the law school. The meetings will be held on a monthly basis to promote communication among the student leaders who have been chosen by their membership to represent them and their concerns.

The first "Summit" meeting will be held Thursday, January, 16th in the SBA office at 12:00 noon. Meetings will be short.

Thank you. Arnetta Herring.
