ADMINISTRATIVE NEWS

Please do not leave your property unattended around the law school. If you see people who are engaged in suspicious activities, report them to appropriate administrative officials. The Law School is a public institution and many people from the surrounding area visit the facility on a regular basis to use the library and for other legitimate purposes. We welcome these visitors and do not assume that they are here to engage in illegal activities. Anyone who comes into the building to engage in illegal activities will be vigorously prosecuted.
