- * Complete the Telephonic Registration worksheet and call EAGLELINE using the instructions provided with the worksheet.

- * If you are not eligible to register through EAGLELINE, you will be given an explanation and a number to call for additional information.

- * If you pre-register during the period March 22, 1997 to July 11, 1997 for the Fall 1997 Semester, you will be mailed a bill to your listed correspondence address during the middle of July 1997. If you register after July 11, 1997 and you require a copy of your bill, you must pick it up from the Billing Office.

In order to further facilitate the registration process, all continuing students who are receiving any form of student aid should contact the Scholarship and Student Aid Office before the end of the semester to insure that all required paperwork has been completed. There are numerous Financial Aid Workshops being held throughout the 1996-97 Spring Semester. All students receiving student aid are urged to attend at least one of these sessions.

ATTENTION ALL STUDENTS! I am compiling news for NCCU Campus and Law School publications. This news should be from Fall, 1996 to the present. I need to know any accomplishments of our law students, or any special awards. I also need to know any special activities in which our students are involved.

Also, please let me know of any special Law School activities of which you are aware which will occur from now until December, 1997.

Please write these down and drop them by my office between now and FRIDAY, APRIL 18TH. Don't be shy! We need to toot our horn!

Lydia Lavelle, Room 201-C

ATTENTION STUDENTS, ORGANIZATIONS, FACULTY, & STAFF!!!!

The third year 1997 graduating class is planning to assemble a "video collage" for presentation at the Graduation Reception. This will be a great way to give visiting loved ones a "capsule summary" of your law school experience. To make this a successful venture WE NEED YOUR HELP!!!! Please contribute any photographs of third year students or news articles (especially with large headlines) about activities in which third year students participated to this effort (please write the name(s) of persons or occasion depicted, your name, and approximate date of event or photos in pencil on the back). These materials can be from this year or any of the previous two years; and can be of, or about individuals or groups of individuals, as long as 3Ls or faculty are included. Please submit materials ASAP to Susan Liggin or Desmona Mizelle in person or via mailbox. The deadline is April 25th. We will make every attempt to return what you submit if requested.

If you are the type of talented person who has done this sort of project before, please contact either Ms. Liggin or Ms. Mizelle - we need your expertise!
