EXAMINATION RULES

1.08-02 ABSENCES FROM EXAMINATIONS

Unexcused absences from an examination will result in a grade of "F" for that examination. Excuses must be sought before the time for taking the examination, except in the most extraordinary situations that would prevent a diligent, reasonable person from obtaining a prior excuse. Only the Associate Dean for Academic Affairs may excuse an absence from a scheduled examination, and only upon a showing by the student that circumstances beyond his or her control prevent appearance at the scheduled time. Excuses are not lightly granted. Where an excuse is granted, the examination may be taken later from the same instructor, by arrangement of the instructor and the Associate Dean, or at the next time the course is offered and an examination given. In such a case, a grade of Incomplete ("I") will be reported to the registrar, if the examination is not taken before final grades must be reported. Such incompletes must be removed (that is the examination must be taken) not later than one year after the missed examination was originally scheduled, or when the examination is given the next time the course is offered, whichever comes first. If the examination is not taken within that time, the grade will automatically become an "F."

1.08-03 LATE ARRIVAL FOR EXAMINATIONS

A student who arrives late for an examination will be permitted to take it without excuse, but the time for completing the examination will not be extended beyond that specified for completion for those who arrived on time. If the student can demonstrate to the instructor that his or her lateness was for good cause, and beyond his or her control, the full scheduled time to complete the examination may be given, at the instructor's discretion.

ADR CLINIC SPRING 2000

ATTENTION STUDENTS TAKING ADR CLINIC

Note two important changes: the course is going to be two (2) credit hours, not three. Also, Professor Morris has recommended that the course be pass/fail.

Students must attend all 40 hours of training during the week of January 3 - 7, 2000. Thereafter, students must spend 25 hours in mediations or other dispute resolution activities during the semester. Further classroom work (less than 10 hours) will be scheduled during the semester.

GHANA LAW PRESENTATION

Our NCCU School of Law visiting professors from Ghana, Margaret Insaído and Phillip Bonzi-Simpson, will be presenting a program for all students, faculty and staff describing The Ghana Legal System & Legal Education in Ghana. The program will take place on Tuesday, November 30th from 5:30 p.m. - 6:30 p.m. in the Moot Court Room. Please take advantage of this unique opportunity to learn about legal issues in a different country. We will be hosting a farewell reception for the Ghana professors immediately following the presentation. All those in attendance are welcome!

CAREER SERVICES NEWS

Attention 1Ls!!!
Attention 1Ls!!!

Interested in finding employment for the summer but don't know where to start? You're invited to attend a Career Services Information Session on Tuesday, November 23, 1999 at 10:00 a.m. in the Moot Court Room. Job search strategies, resume preparation, interviewing skills and special placement programs are among the topics to be discussed. In addition, important information regarding the On-campus Interview (OCI) and Resume Collection (RC) programs and the job posting process will be reviewed. This session is mandatory for all 1Ls who wish to seek employment for the upcoming summer with the assistance of the Career Services Office. We look forward to seeing you on Tuesday.
