How do you feel North

Carolina Central University School of Law has prepared you for the practice of law? Applications are available from Attorney Perry, room 216 or Attorney Lavelle, room 201-C. Completed applications should be returned to Attorney Perry or Attorney Lavelle by April 17th.

TUTORS WANTED

Tutors are needed for the Fall 2000 semester. Please see Attorney Perry if you are interested in tutoring. Tutors are needed for the following courses: Contracts, Torts, Property, Civil Procedure, Constitutional Law and Evidence. Any student interested in tutoring a course should have received an A- or better in course for which they want to serve as a tutor. The student should also be in the top 15% of his/her class. Tutor responsibilities include:

1. attending the class for which he/she is a tutor at least twice a week and preparing 12 weekly 50 minute tutorial sessions;
2. being approachable outside the classroom and or tutorial setting; and

3. communicating on a regular basis with the course professor.

If you are interested, please see Attorney Perry in room 216 for an application.

SPRING 2000 TUTORS PLEASE READ!!!

No tutor meeting because of Honors Convocation. Please check your e-mail and or your box for end of the year instructions. Additionally, please see Attorney Perry to sign your time sheets ASAP. (I want to make sure they are signed before April 10th)

3L PBAP STUDENTS

Please join Attorney Perry in celebrating your upcoming graduation with a cake and punch on Thursday, April 6th at 6:00 p.m. downstairs in the student lounge area. I look forward to seeing you before I take my leave.

LAW FEST 2000

I would like to thank everyone for making LAW FEST 2000 such a success. It is my hope and belief that everyone who participated in the events enjoyed themselves. For those of you who were unable to attend, the highlights were the AKA Step Show (law school is not the only Serious Matter) and the 4-legged race with Professors Hill, Wright, and Kalo (we've fallen and we can't get up). Also, the most valuable team players in the Field Day events were:

- 1L: Anitra Goodman
- 2L: Natasha Adams
and Rashida
Cartwright (Tie)
- 3L: Saundra McNair
- Faculty: Professor Hill

Until next year!!!

Law Fest 2000 Coordinator

DURHAM LAW CAMP

Students! Are you interested in helping Lydia Lavelle coordinate the annual Durham Law Camp? The camp is for students grades 7th - 12th and will be held at the NCCU School of Law June 26th - 30th from 9:00 a.m. - 12:00 noon. Students selected will be compensated. If interested, please see Lydia Lavelle in Room 201-C ASAP.

NATIONAL CONFERENCE OF BLACK LAWYERS

The National Conference of Black Lawyers will hold a forum on the continued efforts to obtain reparations for Black people. R e p a r a t i o n s are compensation for injuries as a result of past and present wrongs.

The forum is entitled "Reparations: America's Debt to African Americans." It will be held at NCCU School of Law on THURSDAY, APRIL 6, 2000 @ 4:30 P.M. The guest speaker is the renowned scholar, Adjoa Aiyetoro. She is an adjunct professor at the Washington College of Law, American University and legal consultant for the National Coalition of Blacks for Reparations in America (N'COBRA).

Career Services News
April 3, 2000

The Office of the Mecklenburg County Public Defender, Charlotte, seeks to hire an intern for the summer of 2000. Interested students should sign-up and submit a resume, writing sample and transcript (or letter of good standing from the Dean) to the Career Services Office by April 6, 2000. The internship is for a minimum of ten weeks and pays a stipend of $1,500 for the summer.

The Wildacres Leadership Initiative will sponsor three candidate forums during the month of April. The participation of NCCU law students has been requested. The forum for candidates seeking the Lt. Governor's seat will be held on Monday, April 10, 2000 from 8:00 p.m. to 9:00 p.m. The forum for the democratic Gubernatorial candidates will be held on Tuesday, April 11, 2000 from 8:00 p.m. to 9:00 p.m. A third forum for Republican and Libertarian candidates will be held on Wednesday, April 12, 2000 from 8:00 to 9:00 p.m. and 9:15 to 9:45 p.m. respectively. The forums will be held at UNC-TV in Chapel Hill. The participation of approximately ten students per night is requested. Students will have the opportunity to submit questions in advance. If you are interested in participating in any or all of the forums, please see Attorney Morgan in 201.

All first and second year students who are interested in a summer judicial clerkship with a judge on the D.C. Superior Court should see Attorney Morgan asap. The clerkships will be for a period of six weeks and provide room and board as well as a $1,500 stipend.

Moore & Van Allen, PLLC and Bank of America invite you to attend a seminar entitled "Thinking Outside the Box: Exploring Specialized Legal Practices in North Carolina". Please come and listen to the panel discussion regarding the various specialized areas of law being practiced in North Carolina, and the benefits of practicing in those areas. This event will be held on Wednesday, April 5, 2000 at 3:00 p.m. in the Moot Court Room. Refreshments will be provided.
