Students interested in getting hands-on experience on family law issues impacting families whose children have suffered physical, sexual and/or mental abuse . . . The Center for Child and Family Health is looking for pro bono students willing to devote four (4) hours/week serving families at their Center.

Students are needed to staff the legal information clinic at the Center's offices near South Square Mall. Students meet with individuals with brief legal questions or problems, research answers to those problems under the supervision of the staff attorney and present that brief legal information (or appropriate referral information) to the individual.

Training will be held Tuesday & Wednesday, October 10th - 11th, 4:30 p.m. - 6:00 p.m. Please plan to attend both sessions. 1Ls, 2Ls, 3Ls and 4Ls can participate. If you are interested in this project, please contact Professor Amana in Room 122 or (919) 560-5247.
