FILM SCREENING OF
"FROM SWASTIKA TO JIM CROW"

"From Swastika to Jim Crow" will be shown this Wednesday, January 17, 2001 at 5:00 p.m. in the NCCU School of Law Moot Courtroom. The document video was filmed, in part, here at NCCU. A question and answer session will follow with the film's director, as well as with a few of the subjects from the film.
A reception sponsored by the Student Bar Association will be held at the conclusion of the Q & A session.

"From Swastika to Jim Crow" is an inspiring account of the experiences and activities of Jewish scholars, refugees from Nazism, who came to the U.S. and taught in traditional black colleges and universities in the segregated South. Interviews are shown with John Hope Franklin, a few of the NCCU professors (notably Ernst Manasse, professor of German, Latin, and Philosophy from 1939 to 1973 at what was then called the North Carolina College for Negroes, now North Carolina Central University), their colleagues, and especially their students.
The film also includes 1939 home movie scenes from Durham.

Career Services News

The Youth Advocacy and Involvement Office is now accepting applications for its internships in state government from interested first and second year students. Applicants must submit (1) a North Carolina Internship Application (must be typed), (2) a cover letter outlining reasons you are interested in each project for which you apply, (3) photocopies of application and cover letter for each project for which you apply, (4) a transcript of post-secondary grades (student copy is sufficient). Law students should also submit course grades or a list of courses if grades are not available as well as class rank, if available, (5) a resume. Completed applications and all application materials should be submitted to the N.C. Internship Program, Youth Advocacy and Involvement Office, 1319 Mail Service Center, Raleigh, NC 27699-1319. The deadline to apply is February 2, 2001 (postmark deadline). Project booklets and applications are available in the Career Services Office or you may access their web site at www.doa.state.nc.us/doa/yaio/intern.htm. One of Youth Advocacy's projects is a judicial internship with the North Carolina Supreme Court or the North Carolina Court of Appeals.

On Thursday, January 18th, the photographer from Strawbridge Studios will be available from 3:30 - 6:30 pm to photograph students for the Career Services Information Booklet which will be sent to employers. In addition to being used this year, this booklet will also be used for the Fall 2001 recruiting season. If you have not yet taken your picture and submitted your biographical information form, please do so on Thursday. If you have any questions or concerns regarding the booklet, please see Attorney Morgan in Room 201. All day and evening students are strongly urged to participate.

On Thursday, January 25th at 12:00 noon, representatives from the Triangle Area Legal Recruitment Administrators Association will visit our campus to discuss the entire application and interview process for their member firms. Topics of discussion include the on-campus interview, the resume, the call back interview, and the summer program. This program is geared toward 1Ls, but all students would benefit and are encouraged to attend. Pizza, sponsored by Lexis, will be served.

Individual counseling sessions are still being scheduled with first year students. Please stop by the Career Services Office to sign-up for an appointment. Please bring a draft copy of your resume to be reviewed during the session. Also, if you are interested in participating in a mock interview before the on-campus interview season begins, please stop by the Career Services Office to inform Attorney Morgan. Many of you indicated an interest back in November, but have since changed your minds. If you remain interested, please stop by to sign-up and submit your resume by Friday, January 19th.
