ATTENTION FACULTY AND STAFF

Feb 7
Faculty mlg
As a result of an inventory taken of the faculty lounge library, we have noticed that several of the North Carolina General
Statutes are missing (Volumes 1, 2, 3, 5, 7, 9, and 10). Also, we have noticed that several volumes of the West's Federal Practice Digest (Volumes 100-102) are missing. If you have them in your possession, please contact Melanie Creech, Reference Librarian at extension 7180 in the School of Law Library.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

1L PBAP students should make an appointment to see Attorney Perry this week. A sign-up sheet is on her door.

The Writing Lab will meet this week on Thursday, February 1st at 2:00 p.m. in room 204 to review citation format.

BARBRI NEWS

Barbri table hours this semester will be every other Tuesday, from 11:45 a.m. until 1:15 p.m. The schedule will be February 6th, February 20th, March 6th, March 20th and April 3rd. If you need help between times, you can ask a Barbri representative.

The Barbri review for the March MPRE exam will be held at NCCU, room 100 on Saturday, March 3rd, from 9:30 a.m. until 1:30 p.m. This review course is part of the Barbri Bar review package price, but Barbri asks that you pay $75.00 towards your package price to get the review materials for this exam. Sign up can be done at the Barbri table hours listed above. The MPRE review books should be here near the beginning of February.

Bills for the July 2001 Bar Review Course will be sent out at the end of January. If you do not receive a bill, or if something appears incorrect, you may call the Barbri office in Durham at 806-3058 or 1-800-300-1822. Review books for the summer bar review will be available around mid April. They can be picked up at the Barbri office which is close to the intersection of Highway 55 and 54 in Durham. Directions will be published in a later newsletter.

JUDGE JIM WYNN TO SPEAK AT NCCU SCHOOL OF LAW

The NCATL will be presenting a very informative session for all NCCU School of Law Students. It is called "HOW TO FIND YOUR WAY AROUND THE COURTROOM AND AVOID IRRITATING THE JUDGE." N.C. Court of Appeals Judge Jim Wynn will discuss the basics of appearing before NC judges. Learn where to sit, when and where to stand, what not to say, and other useful tidbits.

Prominent trial lawyers and Judge Wynn will also discuss helpful interviewing and resume techniques.

This session will take place on Tuesday, February 6th from 5:15 p.m. - 6:15 p.m. in Room 100. Do not miss out on this informative opportunity! FREE PIZZA will be served!!

Career Services News

On Tuesday, January 31st, at 2:00 p.m., the Career Services Office will hold a panel discussion on the job search process in the Moot Court Room. Topics to be discussed are resume drafting, cover letters, interviewing, networking, and courses/activities that enhance your marketability. Panelists include The Honorable Craig Croom, Wake County District Court; Attorney Brian Beverly, Young, Moore & Henderson; Brian Wilks, Office of the Durham County Public Defender; and Michael Williams, Law Office of Steve Bowden. All are recent graduates of NCCU School of Law and will share how their experiences while in law school helped to shape their careers. All students are strongly encouraged to attend.

The Youth Advocacy and Involvement Office is now accepting applications for its internships in state government from interested first and second year students. Applicants must submit (1) a North Carolina Internship Application (must be typed), (2) a cover letter outlining reasons you are interested in each project for which you apply, (3) photocopies of application and cover letter for each project for which you apply, (4) a transcript of post-secondary grades (student copy is sufficient). Law students should also submit course grades or a list of courses if grades are not available as well as class rank, if available, (5) a resume. Completed applications and all application materials should be submitted to the N.C. Internship Program, Youth Advocacy and Involvement Office, 1319 Mail Service Center, Raleigh, NC 27699-1319. The deadline to apply is February 2, 2001 (postmark deadline). Project booklets and applications are available in the Career Services Office or you may access their web site at www.doa.state.nc.us/doa/yaio/intern.htm. One of Youth Advocacy's projects is a judicial internship with the North Carolina Supreme Court or the North Carolina Court of Appeals.

The United States District Court for the Eastern District of North Carolina invites applications for two positions of law clerk with United States Magistrate Judge William A. Webb in Raleigh, N.C. The positions are for the term beginning Fall 2002. Principal tasks include drafting memoranda and proposed orders concerning both civil and criminal federal law, as well as other duties unique to chambers. To apply, please submit resume, law school transcript, writing sample and 2 letters of reference to: United States Magistrate Judge William A. Webb, United States District Court, P.O. Box 25850, Raleigh, NC 27611. Please mark "APPLICATION" on the front of the envelope. The application deadline is February 1, 2001. Interviews will be conducted after March 1, 2001. No phone calls please. Please ask references to mark outside of envelope "RECOMMENDATION".

Spring on-campus interview announcements have been posted and will continue throughout the semester. Please check the Career Services Bulletin Board located outside Room 201. Announcements have been posted for the Institute of Government (1L), Smith Helms Mulliss & Moore (1L), Clawson & Staubes (1L,2L) and the U.S. Army JAGC (1L,3L), U.S. Air Force JAGC (1L, 2L, 3L) U.S. Patent & Trademark Office, Legal Services of N.C. (2L, 3L) and the North Carolina League of Municipalities (1L,2L). Please check the announcement for resume submission and sign-up deadlines. Also, additional announcements have been posted for employers who have requested resumes from our students but will not visit the campus.

The North Carolina State Bar Office of Counsel is seeking a summer law clerk to research legal issues, help prepare the staff attorneys for trial, and assist in the investigation of complaints about lawyer misconduct. Please send cover letter with writing sample and resume to: Larissa J. Erkman, Deputy Counsel, North Carolina State bar, P.O. Box 25908, Raleigh, NC 27611-5908. The deadline is February 23rd. Interested first and second year students are encouraged to apply.
