Career Services News

The law firm of Perry, Perry & Perry, Durham, seeks to hire a student to work part-time during the spring semester. This position could become a full-time position for the summer of 2001. The firm's practice is primarily in the areas of personal injury, medical malpractice, domestic and traffic.

Interested students should sign-up and submit a resume to the Career Services Office by February 26th.

The Law Office of Zabrina Dempson seeks to hire a student for the spring semester. Her practice is primarily in the areas of real estate, domestic and bankruptcy. Interested students should sign-up and submit a resume to the Career Services Office by February 26th.

All students who are interested in conducting research for attorneys throughout the semester should leave your name and email address with Attorney Morgan in Room 201.

The Career Services Office has joined with the law schools at Wake, Campbell and UNC to co-sponsor the Fourth Annual North Carolina Small Firm Job Fair. Two job fairs will be held, one in the eastern part of the state and the other in the west. The Eastern Small Firm Job Fair will take place in Greenville, North Carolina on Saturday, March 17, 2001. The Western Small Firm Job Fair will take place in Hickory, North Carolina on Saturday, March 31, 2001. For more information on the participating firms, please stop by the Career Services Office to pick up an information sheet. The deadline to sign-up and submit your resumes to participate in either of the fairs is March 1, 2001.

The North Carolina State Bar Office of Counsel is seeking a summer law clerk to research legal issues, help prepare the staff attorneys for trial, and assist in the investigation of complaints about lawyer misconduct. Please send cover letter with writing sample and resume to: Larissa J. Erkman, Deputy Counsel, North Carolina State bar, P.O.

Box 25908, Raleigh, NC 27611-5908. The deadline is February 23rd. Interested first and second year students are encouraged to apply.

North Carolina Prisoner Legal Services seeks to hire an intern for the Summer of 2001. NCPLS is a non-profit organization that provides a range of services from advice about the prisoners' legal rights to representation in state and federal courts. Summer interns will work on a wide variety of research and writing projects, assist attorneys in court, and interview inmates. Summer positions are for ten weeks. Please call or write Kristin Parks if you are interest in applying at: P.O. Box 25397, Raleigh, NC 27611. 919856-2200.

Interview schedules have been posted for Bank of America and the U.S. Air Force JAGC. Please check the schedule posted outside the Career Services Office to see whether you have been granted an interview. Both sets of interviews will be conducted on Thursday, February 22, 2001.
