GET INVOLVED IN GIVING BACK
WHILE GETTING PRACTICAL TRAINING AND CREDIT:

Register for the NCCU
Juvenile Law Clinic. The NCCU School of Law
Juvenile Law Clinic works with Durham County juveniles who are involved in delinquency hearings, and school administrative hearings for long-term suspensions. Law students provide direct legal services upon completion of instruction and training on the North Carolina juvenile delinquency code, Durham County School Board policies and procedures, administrative procedures, and relevant state law pertaining to schools. Over the semester, the classroom component will consist of 30 to 40 hours of training and instruction, and the field component will consist of 60 to 70 hours. The clinic is offered to second semester 2Ls and 3Ls who complete or are concurrently enrolled in the prerequisite courses (criminal law, criminal procedure, civil procedure, and trial practice).

(2 Credits)

Instruction and training will be conducted on January 4th, 5th, 11th, 12th, 18th, and 19th from 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. Once instruction and training is completed, class time will be used to work on pending cases.

For more information, contact Natalie McKinney (530-5252) in Room 241 in the Library.
