JUVENILE LAW CLINIC
FALL 2002

The Clinic will meet in the Fall on a day at a time agreed on by the instructors and students. The Clinic is currently scheduled to meet on Fridays to allow those interested in taking the course to register without encountering a conflict with their schedule. At the first scheduled class, we will determine the new day and time the class will meet.

If you have any questions,
please contact Professor Natalie McKinney, Room 241
or 530-5252.

LAW JOURNAL NEWS

"Meetings for students interested in participating in the 2002 NCCU Law Journal Casenote Competition will be held on Wednesday, April 17, 2002 at 4:00 p.m., and Thursday, April 18, 2002 at 5:30 p.m. Our editors encourage all day and evening students who will not be graduating this semester to attend one of these meetings. Students with the best entries will be invited to join the NCCU Law Journal for the upcoming school year. Our editors are currently working to increase the number of students who will be eligible for journal membership via the competition process."

LAW WEEK BANQUET

tickets can be purchased in the back Foyer daily from 10:00 a.m. to 11 a.m., 11:45 a.m. to 12:15 p.m. and 6:15 p.m. to 6:30 p.m.

STUDENTS: $15.00 (Two for $25.00); FACULTY: $25.00.

STUDENTS! Are you interested in helping

Attorneys Nichelle Perry and Lydia Lavelle coordinate their annual Durham Law Camp? The camp is for students in grades 7-12 and will be held at the NCCU School of Law June 24th - 28th from 8:30 a.m. - 12:00 noon. Students selected will be compensated. If interested, see Nichelle Perry in Room 216, or Lydia Lavelle in Room 201-C.

Interested in receiving a $1000.00 scholarship to assist with the cost of taking the Bar this summer? Apply for a North Carolina Central University School of Law Alumni Association Bar Review Scholarship. The Alumni Association is offering four bar review scholarships to qualifying third year students. Applicants are selected based on financial need and their statement of intention. The Statement of Intention should answer the following questions: Why you want to obtain a license to practice law? What are your short and long term career plans? How do you feel North Carolina Central University School of Law has prepared you for the practice of law? Applications are available from Dean Lavelle in Room 201-C. Completed applications should be returned to Dean Lavelle by Friday, April 12th.

IMPORTANT! ALL STUDENTS PLEASE PLAN TO ATTEND a Women Judges Forum that will be held in the Moot Courtroom on Tuesday, April 9th from 5:00 p.m. - 6:15 p.m. There will be eight judges here from District Court and the North Carolina Court of Appeals. This will be very interesting and students will be able to ask questions of these fine judges.

It is important that we turn out and show our support for this program! A reception will follow the forum.
