

North Carolina Central University School of Law
History and Scholarship Digital Archives

NCCU Law School Weekly

Bulletins and Announcements

11-4-2002

The Weekly November 4, 2002

North Carolina Central School of Law

Follow this and additional works at: <https://archives.law.nccu.edu/weekly>

Part of the Legal Education Commons

Recommended Citation

North Carolina Central School of Law, "The Weekly November 4, 2002" (2002). NCCU Law School Weekly. 132.
<https://archives.law.nccu.edu/weekly/132>

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by the Bulletins and Announcements at History and Scholarship Digital Archives. It has been accepted for inclusion in NCCU Law School Weekly by an authorized administrator of History and Scholarship Digital Archives. For more information, please contact jbeeker@nccu.edu.

The Weekly

www.nccu.edu/law/theweekly.html

Contact People:

Dean Janice Mills: 530-6427

Associate Dean Renee Hill

Asst. Dean Steve Douglas
(financial aid): 530-6365

Asst. Dean Adrienne Meddock
(Evening): 530-5249

Ms. Jackie Self (Registrar):

Asst. Dean Lydia Lavelle
(student orgs.): 530-7464

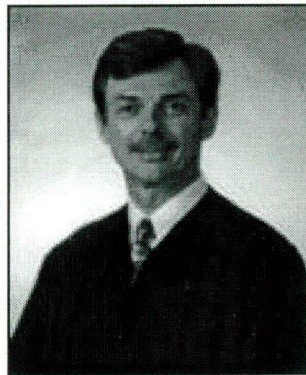

Student Bar Association:
530-6382

Upcoming Events:

- Tues., Nov. 5:
ELECTION DAY!
Remember to vote early and vote often. :)
- The Mike Easley Competition, a Christian Legal Society Bible Study, an Intellectual Property Society Panel Discussion, and Phi Alpha Delta Initiation will be held this week. See back of this Weekly for details.

North Carolina Court of Appeals to Visit Tues., Nov. 12

“Hear ye! Hear ye!”
The North Carolina Court of Appeals will be holding court in our Moot Courtroom on

Judge Greene is the senior judge on the panel

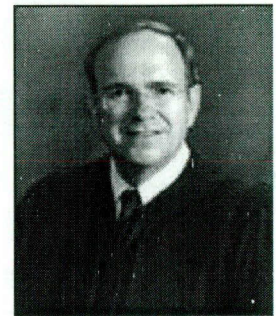

Tues., Nov. 12, beginning at 9:30 a.m. This annual fall event is one that the students, faculty and staff all enjoy.

The Court first started holding court at all of the Law Schools in the mid-90s, when Clifton E. Johnson '67 was still a member. When Judge Johnson retired, he asked his good friend Judge John Martin to make sure the tradition continued—and it has.

The panel this year consists of Judge K. Edward Greene, Judge John C. Martin and Judge Wanda G. Bryant '82. There are three cases scheduled; the cases can each last up to an hour.

The first is a state case involving sexual abuse and objections made regarding evidentiary rulings at trial. The second involves disagreements regarding contractual obligations between a plaintiff doctor and various defendant medical providers, including Community General Hospital of Thomasville, Inc. The third case involves a lawsuit brought on behalf of a decedent which contends that defendant's negligent

Judge Martin continues to carry out a promise made to Judge Clifton E. Johnson medical care led to her death.

Students and faculty are encouraged to attend court throughout the morning. Please enter and leave the courtroom quietly.

Judge Bryant '82 is a court clerk. NCCU Law grad on the Court

Email news for The Weekly to Carol Stanley, Editor, at cstanley@wpo.nccu.edu.

STUDENT NEWS:

MOOT COURT!

The NCCU Moot Court Board would like to congratulate its new members for 2002-03, who successfully competed in this year's Clifton E. Johnson Competition:

*Clint Dorman—Best Overall
Chris Schultz—Best Brief
Timothy Peterkin—Best Oralist
Shannon Deal
Chris Peffley
Tonya White
Stephanie Davis
Deb Pritchard*

Congratulations!

The Moot Court Board would like to congratulate everyone who participated in this year's Clifton E. Johnson Competition. The competition required participants to not only prepare for ten minutes of oral arguments, but to also write an appellate brief on this year's topic. Participation in this competition required a substantial amount of work in addition to the students' normal workload, so everyone who participated deserves to be congratulated!

The Christian Legal Society will have a bible study in the basement on Weds., Nov. 6 from 3:00-4:30pm. All are welcome.

Mike Easley Competition
2Ls Only

Nov. 6 @ 7:00 Moot Courtroom

If you are interested in competing in out of school competition in the Spring and did not take part in the Mary Wright Competition, you must do this competition to be eligible.

Please address all questions to Tiffany Wilson or Tonia Cutchins.

All members of the trial board please download from TWEN (trial board) - all information and events are placed on the website.

On Thurs., Nov. 7, at Carolina, Illinois Governor George Ryan will discuss "The Illinois Moratorium on Executions and the Broken System of Capital Punishment." The event begins at 3:00pm in the rotunda at the UNC School of Law. For more information, see Professor Dayan.

On Thurs., Nov. 7, from 5:00-6:30pm, the IP Society will have a panel discussion and reception. Site (at the Law School) TBA. All students are welcome to attend.

On Fri., Nov. 8, Phi Alpha Delta will have Initiation in the Moot Courtroom at 3:00pm. For more information, see 3L Andrew Peterson.

SCHOOL OF LAW SPOTLIGHT ... Professor Glean!

Professor Pamela Stanback Glean '68 is a native of Hillsborough, NC. She graduated from Duke University in 1977 with a bachelor's degree in economics. She received her juris doctorate in 1980, after which she entered private practice in Greensboro, NC.

In 1992, Glean returned to Durham where she served as Assistant County Attorney, and Staff Attorney for the Center for Child & Family Health. She began teaching at NCCU School of Law in 1996, and is currently a clinical supervising attorney.

While at the Law School, Glean has served as coach and advisor for the Trial Advocacy Team, a member and advisor of the Faculty Senate, and a member of the University Graduation Committee. She also teaches regularly for NITA (the National Institute of Trial Advocacy) and The Principal's Executive Program.

Professor Glean's hobbies include gardening and traveling, especially to the beach.

Professor Glean's brother A. Leon Stanback, Jr. '68 (also a Central Law grad) is a superior court judge in Durham!

