ADMINISTRATIVE NEWS

STUDENTS, STAFF AND FACULTY MEMBERS are urged not to abuse or misuse furniture and furnishings within the Law School. We ask that you not sit on coffee, end tables, and desk tops or put your feet on sofas or in chairs. Such use results in the destruction of this furniture. The Law School's furniture and furnishings are to be used in appropriate manners by members of the law school community and the general public.

Persons who are observed misusing or abusing furniture or furnishings will be held financially responsible for any damage resulting from such acts and students can be referred to the disciplinary committee. The destruction and abuse of Law School property is a serious matter and will be treated as such.

ILLEGAL PARKING VIOLATIONS

The Law School parking lot (Zone "B") is restricted to use of faculty and staff who have purchased parking decals. Parking in Zone B is prohibited to students. Parking for students who purchase decals is limited to Zone "A".

STUDENT ORGANIZATIONS

ATTN. LAW JOURNAL MEMBERS:

There will be a mandatory Law Journal meeting for all members on Thursday, October 22, in Room 100 at 5:15 p.m. All Law Journal members are required to attend; absences will be allowed so long as written notice is provided to the Editor-in-Chief.

BAR/BRI

All graduating students who need to sign up for Bar/Bri Bar Review, please do not forget to take advantage of the early enrollment discount. Enroll before October 31, 1992, and save $100.00. You can lock into the discount price for only $75.00. Please see Sharon

Skyers or Don Ferguson for more details.

Graduating in December? Taking the Bar in February? Students interested in taking The Early Bird Bar Review should contact Adrienne Meddock by October 28th to express interest. If enough people are interested, arrangements will be made.

WRITING SCHOLARSHIP

The Food and Drug Law Institute has announced its 1992-93 Writing Awards and Scholarship Awards competitions. These awards were established to encourage students to take an interest in the areas of law that affect foods, drugs, cosmetics, medical devices, and biotechnology. Interested students who have taken or expect to take an administrative law or food and drug law course may obtain additional information from the following source:

The Food and Drug Law Institute,
1000 Vermont Ave., NW, Suite 1200,
Washington, D.C. 20005, Attention:
Julia K. Ogden, (202) 371-1420.

CIVIL RIGHTS PROGRAM

The Civil Rights Class will sponsor forums on October 21st and 22nd at 6:00 p.m. in the Moot Court Room. Students, Staff and Faculty members are urged to attend each. The forum topics concern critical civil rights issues which are presently confronting citizens and students.
